The College of Science and Engineering’s
Department of Mechanical Engineering presents

Department of Mechanical Engineering graduate students have exactly 3 minutes to explain their research in an engaging and easy to understand format.

3MT Purpose
- Celebrate the exciting research conducted by graduate students in ME
- Cultivate students’ academic, presentation, and research communications skills
- Develop students’ online professional presence via filmed presentations that will be shared on YouTube

Finalist Competition
Oct. 29, 2019
6 p.m. Program • 7 p.m. Reception
Best Buy Theater, Northrop

3MT Rules
- Single static PowerPoint slide. No slide transitions, animations, or movement of any description are allowed.
- No additional electronic media are permitted.
- No additional props are permitted.
- Presentations are limited to three minutes maximum, and participants exceeding three minutes are disqualified.
- Presentations are to commence from the stage.
- Presentations are to be spoken word.
- Presentations are considered to have commenced when a presenter starts their presentation through either movement or speech.
- The decision of the adjudicating panel is final.

Judges
- Christopher Cramer
  Vice President for Research, University of Minnesota
- Mark Rosenberg
  Vice Dean of Education and Academic Affairs, Medical School
- Tom Fisher
  Director, Minnesota Design Center; former dean, School of Design

Prizes
- $250 First Prize
- $100 Runner Up
- $100 Peoples Choice

3MT competitions are now held in more than 170 universities across more than 18 countries worldwide.

RSVP by Oct. 25
visit z.umn.edu/me20193mt or contact Jennifer Clarke at 612.626.9354 or jclarke@umn.edu.